POLICY STATEMENT

Dynamic Training UK Ltd (DTUK) recognises that discrimination and victimisation is unacceptable and that it is in the interests of Dynamic Training UK Ltd and its employees to utilise the skills of the total workforce. It is the aim of Dynamic Training UK Ltd to ensure that no employee or job applicant receives less favourable facilities or treatment (either directly or indirectly) in recruitment or employment on grounds of age, disability, gender / gender reassignment, marriage / civil partnership, pregnancy / maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation (the protected characteristics).

Our aim is that our workforce will be truly representative of all sections of society and each employee feels respected and able to give of their best.

We oppose all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination or victimisation. To that end the purpose of this policy is to provide equality and fairness for all in our employment.

All employees, whether part-time, full-time or temporary, will be treated fairly and with respect. Selection for employment, promotion, training or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of the workforce will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.

Our staff will not discriminate directly or indirectly, or harass customers or clients because of age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, and sexual orientation in the provision of the Company's goods and services.

This policy and the associated arrangements shall operate in accordance with statutory requirements. In addition, full account will be taken of any guidance or Codes of Practice issued by the Equality and Human Rights Commission, any Government departments, and any other statutory bodies.

Our commitment

- To create an environment in which individual differences and the contributions of all our staff are recognised and valued.
- Every employee is entitled to a working environment that promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.
- Training, development and progression opportunities are available to all staff.
- To promote equality in the workplace which we believe is good management practice and makes sound business sense.
- We will review all our employment practices and procedures to ensure fairness.
- Breaches of our equality policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings.
- This policy is fully supported by senior management and has been agreed with trade unions and/or employee representatives.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually
- Dynamic Training UK Ltd staff will uphold and promote fundamental British values at all times - democracy/The rule of law/individual liberty/ tolerance

Responsibilities of the Directors

The Directors of Dynamic Training UK Ltd Recognise the importance of the EQUALITY ACT 2010 and their related PUBLIC SECTOR EQUALITY DUTIES. The Managing Director will ensure that the Equality Policy is reviewed annually or more frequently as need dictates.

The Directors further recognise that ESF funded projects fall within the scope of the Equality Policy and its associated implementation plan.

Responsibilities of management

Responsibility for ensuring the effective implementation and operation of the arrangements will rest with the Chief Executive. Directors / Managers will ensure that they and their staff operate within this policy and arrangements,

Each manager will ensure that:

- all their staff are aware of the policy and the arrangements, and the reasons for the policy;
- grievances concerning discrimination are dealt with properly, fairly and as quickly as possible;
- proper records are maintained.

The Directors will be responsible for monitoring the operation of the policy in respect of employees and job applicants, including periodic departmental audits.

Responsibilities of staff

Responsibility for ensuring that there is no unlawful discrimination rests with all staff and the attitudes of staff are crucial to the successful operation of fair employment practices. In particular, all members of staff should:

- comply with the policy and arrangements;
- not discriminate in their day to day activities or induce others to do so;
- not victimise, harass or intimidate other staff or groups who have, or are perceived to have one of the protected characteristics.
- ensure no individual is discriminated against or harassed because of their association with another individual who has a protected characteristic.
- inform their manager if they become aware of any discriminatory practice.

Third parties

Third-party harassment occurs where a Dynamic Training UK Ltd employee is harassed, and the harassment is related to a protected characteristic, by third parties such as clients or customers. Dynamic Training UK Ltd will not tolerate such actions against its staff, and the employee concerned should inform their manager / supervisor at once that this has occurred. Dynamic Training UK Ltd will fully investigate and take all reasonable steps to ensure such harassment does not happen again.

Related policies and arrangements

All employment policies and arrangements have a bearing on equality of opportunity. Dynamic Training UK Ltd policies will be reviewed regularly and any discriminatory elements removed.

Dynamic Training UK Ltd is a registered “Disability Confident” employer to make the most of the talents disabled people bring to the workplace.

Through “Disability Confident “ we are

- Challenging attitudes towards disability
- Increasing Understanding of disability
- Removing barriers to disabled people and those with long-term health conditions
- Ensuring that disabled people have the opportunities to fulfil their potential and realise their aspirations

Equality training

A series of regular briefing sessions will be held for staff on equality issues. These will be repeated as necessary. Equality information is also included in induction programmes. Training will be provided for managers on this policy and the associated arrangements. All managers who have an involvement in the recruitment and selection process will receive specialist training.

Monitoring

Dynamic Training UK Ltd deems it appropriate to state its intention not to discriminate and assumes that this will be translated into practice consistently across the organisation as a whole. Accordingly, a monitoring system will be introduced to measure the effectiveness of the policy and arrangements.

The system will involve the routine collection and analysis of information on employees by gender, marital status, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, religion / beliefs, grade and length of service in current grade. Information regarding the number of staff who declare themselves as disabled will also be maintained.

There will also be regular assessments to measure the extent to which recruitment to first appointment, internal promotion and access to training/development opportunities affect equal opportunities for all groups.

We will maintain information on staff who have been involved in certain key policies: Disciplinary, Grievance and Bullying & Harassment.

Where appropriate equality impact assessments will be carried out on the results of monitoring to ascertain the effect of Dynamic Training UK Ltd policies and our services / products may have on those who experience them. The information collected for monitoring purposes will be treated as confidential and it will not be used for any other purpose.

If monitoring shows that the Dynamic Training UK Ltd, or areas within it, are not representative, or that sections of our workforce are not progressing properly within Dynamic Training UK Ltd, then an action plan will be developed to address these issues. This will include a review of recruitment and selection procedures, Company policies and practices as well as consideration of taking legal Positive Action.
